Arab Vision news update—April 2015

- Hope for Tomorrow – now on TV and internet
- Easter – the Lord is risen indeed!
- Thank you!
- Reconciliation documentary

Dear friends,

Hope for Tomorrow – now on TV and internet

This series of programs about (domestic) violence against girls and women is now being broadcast on Miracle TV. (www.miraclechannel.com) The aim of the programs is to bring the theme of domestic violence into the open and to invite women to start talking. That can be done anonymously. We have posted one episode of this series on our YouTube channel, with subtitles in English. See Hope for Tomorrow

In our March newsletter which you can read here online, we wrote about a report that has been published about the situation of women in the Arab world and we published an interview with the scriptwriter of our new series of women in the Bible. If you don't receive our newsletter by post, please do read it online or send us a request for delivery by post.

Easter

Meantime the Easter DVD we wrote about last time has been ordered by several organisations and churches to pass on to Arabic speaking Christians in the West. The DVD is subtitled in English, so if you would still like to receive a copy, (the message of Easter is not restricted to a certain date!) please send us a donation and your address so we can still send you a copy.

THANK YOU شُكْرًا

We would like to express our gratitude to everyone who supported us financially in 2014 and would like to send a DVD with a sample of the programs we produced in 2014. Because we often cannot see your details when you send a donation, we don't always know where to send the DVD, so if you have supported us and you haven't received the DVD by the end of April, please do not hesitate to contact us by sending a mail to contact@arabvision.org. We'll be more than happy to send you the DVD.

Reconciliation Project

The Dutch Evangelical Broadcast decided to help us raise funds for the documentary we would like to produce about reconciliation, in cooperation with Musalaha, an organisation in Jerusalem which has more than 20 years of experience in building bridges and facilitating contacts between Palestinian Christians and Messianic believers in Israel. We are very grateful for their support, but even if they manage to raise the maximum amount they are allowed to give, we still need additional funds. If you would like to know more about the project, please look at project reconciliation. We hope the documentary will raise awareness and encourage Christians to take (small) steps on the road of reconciliation.

Thank you for being partners in this ministry and on behalf of the whole Arab Vision team I wish you God's richest blessing.

Umm-al Farieq,
International director Arab Vision
